Since EA Sports cannot use the real name of f the team Juventus, they have had to use an alternative nom de guerre for the Serie A giants. The name

Piemonte Calcio

literally means

Piemonte Football

and is inspired by the region of Italy in which Juventus are based.

This paved the way for the club's name.

In Latin, the name

Juventus means youth.

They weren't aware of it yet, but on 1 November 1897, they had given birth to a legend.

And so Italy's greatest football team was born, almost by chance.
